Aiming High, Celebrating Success

Friday 9th September 2011

Dear Parents

Next Friday (16th) we will re start 'Free Food Friday' at Haddenham Community Junior School. It was very successful last autumn and we sent many vegetables to good homes! We will be repeating this until further notice, each Friday at 3:25pm on the large playground.

The idea is simple; either a) bring unwanted produce from your garden (or neighbour's garden!) or allotment to school on Friday morning or after school and see it go to a good home to be turned into tasty meals.

- b) collect this surplus produce and take it home or
- c) both of the above!

It's a kind of swap shop but you don't necessarily have to 'bring' to 'take'.

At the same time, Ms Rachel will be selling homemade jams and jellies in aid of school funds.

With the help of Ms Rachel, the scheme will be run by our very own team of Eco Warriors from all Year Groups.

Carrier bags will be most welcome too!

Next Friday is also the final day for the Jam Jar Challenge started at the end of last term. We are looking for the class who bring in the most empty jam jars.
