The Y3 Girls Team on Saturday morning

Cross Country

On Saturday January 21st 34 keen individuals turned up to race at Turnfurlong Junior School. We came 4th overall which was pleasing considering the gaps in the Y5 and 6 teams! Y3 boys, Y3 girls, Y4 boys and Y4 girls all won silver team places. Individual medal winners were Ellie Cartwright (1st Y4 girls), Dylan Langley (2nd Y4 boys), Chloe Sudborough (1st Y3 girls) and Harry Hodges (3rd Y3 boys). Well done all of you who took part.

As part of their Tudor work Y4 wrote a list laws they would make if they were a king or queen. Many (including Mrs Millington!) opted for compulsory chocolate fountains and never ending piles of sweets but this one stood out for its thoughtfulness.

'If I were queen' By Lauren Riley 4TM

1. Ban HS2
2. Plant more trees
3. Don't kill animals for their fur
4. Don't cut trees down
5. Leave fish alone
6. Don't drop litter
7. Take care of birds
8. Keep the world tidy

SNEHA

We were pleased to send a cheque for £150 to the SNEHA home in Bangalore recently. This was thanks to your generosity at the Y3 Christmas play.

More great writing

Y4 have written stories based on known fairy tale characters. Sophie has picked up this idea really successfully. Her work was read out to Y6 as a good example!

Bad Day for Humpty by Sophie Hill White

On Monday 23rd January Humpty Dumpty fell off of the King's best walls.

The well known resident from Hey Diddle Diddle Lane was sitting on High Brick Wall watching the soldiers train the king's horses when he got so eggcited that he fell forwards.

"We were just marching and training the king's horses when one of the horses named Little Bo Peep bucked. We then realised Humpty had fallen off the king's best wall!" exclaimed Head Chief Mr A Porridge, who is now being treated for shock. The Big Egg's best friend Puss in Boots is now being questioned over catslaughter. As he was being questioned he told us that "I was just minding my own business looking after my new boots when all I heard was CRACK!"

Humpty told us that he is still as merry as Old King Cole was when his palace went mayhem.

Mr Gingerbread man, one of Humpty's closest friends, told us this.

"I saw Humpty's egg shell rolling down the Great Hill. It was horrendous. We tried phone Doctor Foster but he had fallen down a puddle in Gloucester.

Humpty is now recovering in the Porridge Care Home.

Reminder

Please make sure your child has coat/gloves in this current phase of cold weather. Also they should have warm clothes for outside games, including tracksuit trousers (unless they are very hardy and don't mind cold legs!)

Governor News

Full Governors met on January 24th. They had training from Kate Rumboll, our County Advisor, about the new Ofsted framework. This new framework came into use only last month and is different in quite a few ways from the previous one. All agreed that it was a very useful session and will help the Governors in their role in supporting school improvement.

Y3 Puppets. Aimee, Nina and Jake show off their Mousehole Cat puppets that they have made in DT. It was very difficult to choose pictures as they were all so good, hopefully some more will appear on the website!
